

Product Brochure for Group Accidental Death Benefit Rider

Death caused due to an accident: Accidental Death is defined as a traumatic death caused solely by external, violent, unforeseeable and visible means, occurring independently of any other causes and within ninety (90) days of such trauma, proved to the satisfaction of the insurer.

Death Benefit: Under this Rider Benefit, if the Life Insured dies due to an accident, the Company shall pay the death benefit to the beneficiary. The Death Benefit is a monthly reducing Coverage calculated on the basis of Coverage, Coverage Term and an assumed interest rate.

Joint Life Coverage: The co-borrower can also be covered by the benefits of this rider by paying a premium in addition to the borrower's premium. In case of death of any of the lives insured, the benefit will be paid to surviving Life Insured and all benefits under the Coverage would cease.

Free-look Option

If the Life Insured disagrees with any of the terms and conditions of the Coverage, then he/she can return the original Certificate of Insurance along with a letter stating reasons for the objection within 15 days of the date of the Certificate of Insurance. The Coverage will be cancelled and an amount equal to the premium paid less stamp duty costs and underwriting expenses incurred by Bharti AXA Life Insurance in issuing the Coverage will be refunded to you. All your rights under the Coverage shall stand extinguished immediately on the cancellation of the Coverage under the free look option.

Surrender Benefit: In case the life insured seeks to cancel the coverage after the free look period, a refund calculated as per the following formula shall be payable:

$SVF \times P \times U/T$, where:

SVF = Surrender Value Factor (as per the table given below)

P = Single premium paid in respect of the Coverage of a Life Insured excluding service tax and applicable cess

U = Unexpired Coverage Term (in months)

T = Coverage Term for the Life Insured (in months)

The surrender value factors differ by age of entry and are as follows:

| Policy Term | SV Factor |
|--------------------|------------------|
| 1 – 5 | 35% |
| 6 – 10 | 45% |
| 11 – 15 | 50% |

Prohibition of Rebate: Section 41 of the Insurance Act, 1938

(1) No person shall allow or offer to allow, either directly or indirectly, as an inducement to any person to take or renew or continue an insurance in respect of any kind of risk relating to lives or property in India, any rebate of the whole or part of the commission payable or any rebate of the premium shown on the policy, nor shall any person taking out or renewing or continuing a policy accept any rebate, except such rebate as may be allowed in accordance with the published prospectuses or tables of the insurer:

Provided that acceptance by an insurance agent of commission in connection with a policy of life insurance taken out by himself on his own life shall not be deemed to be acceptance of a rebate of premium within the meaning of this sub-section if at the time of such acceptance the insurance agent satisfies the prescribed conditions establishing that he is a bona fide insurance agent employed by the insurer.

(2) Any person making default in complying with the provisions of this section shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

Section 45 of the Insurance Act, 1938

No policy of life insurance effected before the commencement of this Act shall after the expiry of two years from the date of commencement of this Act and no policy of life insurance effected after the coming into force of this Act shall, after the expiry of two years from the date on which it was effected be called in question by an insurer on the ground that statement made in the proposal or in any report of a medical officer, or referee, or friend of the insured, or in any other document leading to the issue of the policy, was inaccurate or false, unless the insurer shows that such statement was on a material matter or suppressed facts which it was material to disclose and that it was fraudulently made by the policy-holder and that the policy-holder knew at the time of making it that the statement was false or that it suppressed facts which it was material to disclose:

Provided that nothing in this section shall prevent the insurer from calling for proof of age at any time if he is entitled to do so, and no policy shall be deemed to be called in question merely because the terms of the policy are adjusted on subsequent proof that the age of the life insured was incorrectly stated in the proposal.
